Ciljevi projekta

Cilj projekta bio je istražiti razinu demokracije u partnerskim zemljama s obzirom na suvremena događanja i promjene u Europi: povijesne predispozicije, migrantska kriza, položaj žena, pravo na obrazovanje, kultura i suvremena povijesna previranja. Projekti su se provodili u sklopu Građanskog odgoja i obrazovanja i bili su ukomponirani u kurikulum škola angažirajući i nastavnike drugih predmeta.

Žive novine - inovativna metoda poučavanja

Kao inovativnu metodu poučavanja upotrijebili smo Living Newspapers ili Žive novine kojom je na zanimljiv način prikazan problem prava žena odnosno njihove diskriminacije u Europi. Inače, metodi Živih novina poučeni su brojni sudionici radionica Aktivne metode u građanskom odgoju u organizaciji Hrvatskog centra za dramski odgoj.

1. Comparison of school system

Greece

A school starts at age of 6 but, before this, a child might spend 2 or 3 years in kindergarten. School is compulsory until the age of 15. In primary schools in Greece, kids spend approximately 960 hours a year mean classes for 32 weeks. In secondary schools, students spend 1.100 hours in the classroom during a year. They have 98 days of vacation including 2 months during summer (July and August), 15 days during Christmas (from 24 to January 7) and another 15 days during Easter (not specified, it depends of the day of Easter).

Public schools are public (over 90%) but there are also private schools throughout Greece. The majority of students attend public school. Only a 6% of the total student population goes to a private school (2013). During 2014, 1 private education class, there were 786.000 students in primary education, 360.000 in secondary education and 100.000 in tertiary education level. There are no schools related to church in Greece. The average number of France and the US are sometimes considered the birth of modern democracy but the word 'democracy' only started being used after the Revolution in 1789. The road towards today's democracy was long, there was much instability; 2 empires (with Napoleon III), 2 monarchies, 5 republics and the Vichy regime during WWII (with Marshal Pétain). It was in 1958 that General de Gaulle established the Fifth Republic. France's current regime based on the motto: 'Liberty, Equality, Fraternity'. (summary made by the Library of Congress website).
